THE RAYMOND LION

The first meeting of the 1952 season for the Raymond Lions Club convened at the Legion Hall last Monday at six-thirty. Mrs. McKean—two of them—and Mary Thompson served a very delicious meal. If any of you boys want the best there is in town, you should join the Lions Club. Attendance was poor, out of one hundred and thirty curiers, half of the Lions can be drawn every Monday for a six o'clock game. That is a poor excuse because only four Lions were Curling and three of them came to the meeting later. Pig-sticking, excursions, snow shovelling, recuperations, digeneration—all took their toll.

The absentees missed the boat—we had a very enjoyable little social evening. One of our lost members—Don Wilde—had a son, Lowell Wilde, to represent the family. We should like to see one of Don's boys carry on his very active part in Lionism.

Bert Powelson turned in a bit of lively ribbing and considerable cash in pinch-hitting for Loron, our Tail Twister. Bert does some Twisting that keeps the boys from sleeping.

Melvin unloaded his bold (bad?) contract tie to Lyle Bigelow. Bigelow will have to carry this gal near his heart for the next interval—(il) January 21. The President reminded the gang of the campaign to raise funds for the Canadian Institute for the Blind. The business was carried with despatch and the meeting dismissed rather early—more curiers and some wanted to go to the Cowboy Show at the Opera House.

A busy Directors Meeting was held immediately after the Regular meeting. A special guest night was planned for January 21st. Twenty-one special guests are being invited, in keeping with the Melvin Jones Birthday Honors. Melvin Jones is the Founder of Lionism and is still active General Secretary. A distinctive and appropriate program is planned—don't miss it!

Another Ladies Night is coming up. The three Vice Presidents have divided the Lions among them and are to hold a lively little contest for January activities. The two least active teams must entertain the most lively team, together with partners. That way the total amount of effort will come out about even.

Little Audrey says—Jeans or skirts, high or low, you can't see what is it that makes the boys all flock around six girls at a dance while the rest of the girls wait and wonder in a corner.

Last Wednesday evening the Friendship Club met at the home of Mrs. Barbara McPhee for their regular gettogether. Visiting and lunch was enjoyed and one special guest, Mrs. Irene Jensen was present.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Holland had as their guests over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Holland of Taber, Gelane Holland of Cardston and Norman LeBaron of Barnwell.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Walt Piegras announce the engagement of their daughter Janet to John B. Gillespie of Regina, son of Mrs. Dan Glent.

The marriage will take place Saturday, February 2nd, at the home of Bishop and Mrs. Wm. Jensen.

We add our congratulations and best wishes to Raymond's senior citizen, Heber Coles, on the occasion of his 95 birthday on Monday January 7th.

Conference Dates Announced

The Quarterly Conference of the Taylor Stake will be held on Saturday and Sunday, February 2nd and 3rd. As Stirling has had but few Conferences in recent years, the Saturday evening sessions will be held there at six p.m. This will be a Welfare meeting with a representative of the General Welfare Committee in Salt Lake City present to conduct a discussion. All Stake and Ward Welfare workers are requested to attend.

At seven o'clock on Saturday, Feb. 2, an open meeting will be held for everyone. The theme of this meeting will be "Priesthood Work".

On Sunday, February 3, Conference will be held in Magrath with meetings at 10 a.m., 2 p.m., and at 7 p.m. under the direction of the MIA.

Fire Destroys Farm Home of J. D. Atwood

A heartbreaking episode in the lives of the Jesse Atwood family occurred Wednesday night when their home and most of their possessions were destroyed in a fire that was caused by an overheated stovepipe.

The fire was discovered at about eight o'clock and Layne phoned the alarm into town. Mr. and Mrs. Atwood, who were in town at the time, were notified of the fire and were soon on the way to their home which was about seven miles north-west of town.

The Town Fire Truck was unable to respond to the alarm but a truck load of men and chemical extinguishers were dispatched to the scene of the fire, but arrived too late to save the house. Neighbors were on hand to render what assistance they could but the flames were the final victor of the fight.

As in all tragedies there were points of humor that will be remembered as long as the fire that caused damage estimated to be well over $5,000.00. In the scramble to save as much as possible, one of the volunteers saw a radio with a black case on top of it. Without stopping to find out what was in the case he put it on the floor and took the radio out to safety. It turned out that the black case was a new typewriter and the radio was one of ancient vintage that hasn't uttered a sound for a couple of years.

Another thing that will be long remembered is the saving of the case of an electric razor. When the case was picked up it wasn't noticed that the razor fell out so it too was destroyed.

A refrigerator, a chrome kitchen suite, a sewing machine and a few old clothes were just about all that were saved.

Among the things lost was a deep freeze full of provisions, and all of the things that a family collect and hold dear to their hearts, over the years.

We join the rest of the community in extending our sincere sympathy to the Atwoods, who are staying in town with friends and relatives.

S. B. Card and Dick Kinsey were business visitors in Calgary the first of the week.

Our Explanation To You

Please accept our apologies for the lack of your weekly newspaper for past two weeks. The first issue was missed because of sickness and the second because, try as we did, we could not get the shop warm enough to get the rollers soft enough to run off the paper. These unfortunate circumstances have now been rectified and it is still our intention to publish your paper regularly. All expiration dates will be adjusted to compensate our subscribers.

Our efforts for the past couple of months to secure the services of a printer have finally paid off and we know that you will join in our elation when we tell you that unless something unforeseen happens before then another printer will be hanging his hat in our shop on February 15th. This will mean that your paper now has a lot better chance of getting to you before Monday night. At this time we wish to express our sincere gratitude to our many friends and subscribers who have been so understanding during our first years here. It has been a bit of a struggle to get into a position where we could hire extra help but we are both happy that, with your individual and collective assistance, that happy time has arrived. We ask for your continued support so that we can make your home-town paper ever better.

Along with these glad tidings we have an announcement that is not so good. Beginning in the near future we will have to add ten per cent government sales tax to our commercial printing prices. This is not done because we want to but because we have to comply with government regulations. We hope that you will understand. We are trying to give you a complete printing service at a reasonable cost and we will appreciate it if at any time you have any complaint either about the cost or quality of our work you will let us know immediately—we are only human and just as susceptible to mistakes as the next person but we don't want any of our mistakes to cause ill feelings with any of our fellow citizens. We are here to be of service to you so please feel free to drop in at any time to get a quotation on a job. Insert a want ad or just to see how our work is done. We may be busy but you will always be welcome.

Yours sincerely,
Max and Roxie

Carol Larsen, who is in Calgary completing her Nurses Aid training, is feeling a little under the weather at the present time and would like to hear from her friends.

When she graduates she will return to St. Michael's Hospital in Lethbridge where she has been offered a position.

The Les Amies Club met at the home of Mrs. Barbara McPhee last Monday for a pleasant evening of sewing and visiting. A lovely lunch was served by the hostess and co-hostess, Mrs. Doris Erickson.

Farewell Services Honor Barbara Nalder

A Farewell Service was held Sunday evening in the Stake House for Barbara Nalder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Nalder, who leaves at the end of the month for the Central Atlantic Mission, after attending Mission School in Salt Lake.

W. L. Nalder was the first speaker of the evening followed by a lovely vocal solo by an aunt of Barbara's, Mrs. Emma Burr, accompanied by Mrs. Kay Redd. Elder Clair Burr, who recently returned from a mission told a few of his experiences during the past two years or so, after which Mrs. Joe Keeler played a piano solo.

Mr. and Mrs. Nalder and Barbara then spoke briefly, followed by a few remarks from Bishop Hicken, the concluding speaker.

Other relatives from out of town present at the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nalder and family of Picture Butte.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rasmussen entertained a few friends at their home for a delicious turkey dinner and Rook party.

Guests were the Milo Vances, Gerry Gibbs, Kay Redds, Dean Rolfsen, the Rex Meeks, Arch Terrys and Alma Sommerfeldts and Claude Petersons of Wellington. The Rolfsens were high scorers for the evening and the Sommerfeldts won the consolation prize.

Mrs. P. Helgeson was hostess Thursday evening to the members of the Womens Auxiliary of the United Church. Annual reports were approved and work for 1952 discussed.

Following the business meeting, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. Dainard, served a delicious lunch.

Another Accident On Shelby Road

A near serious accident occurred last Thursday near Shelby when the car driven by Dr. Orson Bingham hit an icy spot on the road, ploughed into a snow drift and overturned in the ditch.

Dr. Bingham, who was travelling to Shelby to meet his father, was accompanied by his brother Melvin Bingham, Mrs. Bessie Lybbert and Marky Bingham. Mrs. Lybbert who received two breaks in her left arm, was the only one to receive injuries other than shock and bruises. She was taken to the Shelby Hospital for treatment; returning home over the weekend.

The top of the car was badly damaged but it wasn't until after driving home that they found that the steering mechanism was also damaged.

Raymond motorists sure seem to have bad luck on that road.

W. I. News

The Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Ira McBride last Friday for the first meeting in the new year. Mrs. E. Webster and Mrs. Parley Meldrum, co-hostesses, Mrs. Clara Rolfsen was Conventor.

I. as Secretary for the past eight years. A birthday gift was presented to Mrs. McBride as the meeting was held at her home on her birthday.

The Door Prize was won by Mrs. Rolfsen, and the Roll Call was answered by stating the favorite Christmas present.

Ken Milner Honored Before Leaving For N.Z.

Kenneth Milner was honored Sunday evening in the Fourth Ward. Kenneth leaves in February for a mission in New Zealand.

His sister Lois and Dick Kinsey gave very interesting talks as were the remarks by Ken and Mr. and Mrs. Milner, and Bishop Snow.

A lovely vocal number was rendered by Dawn Mendenhall, Marg. Stone and Anita McBride, accompanied by Barbara Wing, and a trumpet solo by Grant Erickson, accompanied by Mary Snow was also enjoyed.

In conclusion another sister, Joyce spoke briefly as did C. R. Wing, followed by the presentation by Mrs. Roy Woolley on behalf of the Genealogical Committee, of The Book of Remembrance.

Last Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Card entertained in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor on the occasion of their thirty-fourth Wedding Anniversary.

After a delicious dinner served to twenty-eight guests, Mr. Wood read them an original poem concerning the honored guests. A lovely gift was also presented them.

After dinner the guests retired to the rumpus room where they played Rook, with Inez Hicken winning the prize for the ladies and Lee Brewerton for the men.

A very enjoyable evening indeed.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Lamarr, now of Calgary, will be interested to know that they will spend the winter months holidaying in Europe.

Midget Hockey Organization Formed

Midget Hockey is forging ahead at the local rink these days after an organization meeting held recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Holland. About fourteen boys, from 13 to 16 years, gathered there to ask Mike if he would take over the coaching duties. After his services were assured an executive was elected with Dennis Minion as President, Calvin Pack, Secretary, and Frazer Grant, Treasurer. Roy Minion is the team's manager.

These boys are the future hockey players of the senior ranks and any assistance you can give them will be greatly appreciated. Your presence at the rink for their practices and games will give the boys a little encouragement.

Owen W. Larsen Is Laid To Rest

Funeral services were held for the late Owen Woodruff Larsen in the Second Ward Chapel on Thursday, January 10, with Bishop Wm. Jensen conducting.

The opening prayer was offered by Karl Salmon and was followed by remarks by Bishop Jensen who expressed the family's gratitude to all those present and for the many floral tributes.

The Second Ward Choir, directed by Gen Hawkins with Dora Oler at the organ, rendered the opening song, "O My Father" which was followed by Donald Oler's telling of his lonely association with the Larsen family in Stirling. He related the wonderful story of how the faith and prayers of the late Mr. Larsen's mother were responsible for the restoration of her son's right arm after it had been completely severed by a binder when the child was only three years old. Medical authorities said it was impossible to save the arm but his mother had such great faith that the arm was not only restored but through out most of his life Mr. Larsen had complete use of it. Mr. Oler also spoke of the many good qualities of the whole family.

The Glee-Elte Club, directed by Geneva Erickson and accompanied by Rojeana Bingham, sang the beautiful selection "Beyond the Sunset" with the tone poem "Should You Go First" recited by Betty Evans.

Temple marriages and the family reunion in the life after death was the theme of M. T. King's comforting message to the family.

A ladies trio—Gen Hawkins, Laura Waton and Velma Bigelow—sang "My Prayer" and T. Geo. Wood spoke of the ability and dependability Mr. Larsen had shown during his sixteen years employment at the sugar factory. He also drew attention to Mr. Larsen's great love of growing flowers. He closed his remarks by offering words of encouragement and consolation to the family.

"Lead Me Gently Home" was the selection the Frank Taylor Quartette—Frank Taylor, Ira McBride, Paul Redd and Deb Oler—sang before the Glee-Elte Club brought the impressive services to a close with "Lead Me Gently Home". The benediction was pronounced by D. A. Bennett.

Pallbearers were Roy Larsen, Cardston; Perry Barton, Stirling; Wayne Lee, Lethbridge; Andy Noel, Magrath; J. D. and A. C. Atwood, with interment in the Temple Hill Cemetery. Christenson Bros. were in charge.

Many friends and relatives from distant points were in attendance at the funeral as were all the members of the families.

Mrs. Annie Larsen and family wish to extend their sincere thanks to their many friends who were of such great help and comfort to them in their recent bereavement. Special thanks are offered the Glee-Elte and Wednesday Nite Clubs and all those who sent financial contributions and floral tributes at the funeral.

What Happened At The Council Meeting

The regular meeting of the Town Council was held at 8 p.m. in the Town Hall. Those present were Mayor Jensen and Councillors Pack, Wilde, Jacobs, Ralph and Melchin.

Mr. T. Geo. Wood and Mr. C. R. Wing representing the Raymond Rotary Club met the Council. They were accompanied by Myron Holmes, Club President and Paul Redd.

The Committee stated that the Rotary Club were interested in getting a movement started in which the whole community would participate in raising funds for a new Library with the idea that the Town would provide part of the funds and the balance be raised by other means. The Committee thought that the public needed to be informed and given publicity on the matter to see if the public would endorse such a scheme.

Mr. Redd presented a preliminary sketch with an estimate of costs for such a building.

The Council were very much in favor of such a project and expresses its appreciation of the efforts of the Rotary Club, its committee headed by Mr. Wood, and to Mr. Redd for his work on the plans and estimates. The Committee was asked to continue on a campaign to acquaint the public with the proposal and the Council agreed to go into the matter of possible financial aid from the Town when the 1952 budget was made up.

The next regular council meeting falling on the date of the Annual Meeting, the next Council meeting was set for February 4th.

Councillor Ralph was appointed Deputy Mayor for the next three months.

Moved by Councillor Pack that May or Jensen and Sec. Treas. W. L. Jones be authorized to sign cheques, agreements etc. for the Town. Carried.

Moved by Councillor Jacobs that W. L. Jones be appointed Assessor for Business Tax Assessment and that part of Assessments which the Department of Municipal Affairs do not do. Carried.

Moved by Councillor Melchin that the retiring members of the Library Board, Mrs. Norma Wood and Wm. W. Nalder be reappointed. Carried.

Moved by Councillor Jacobs that the Town again join in the Fly Control campaign and have the Fly Spray machine again come to Raymond.

Moved by Councillor Pack that Mr. Romeril be allowed to connect to our supply line, put in the installation and meter at his own expense and the Town would reimburse him $125. after service was installed. He would be obliged to pay the usual minimum monthly charge and continue paying for the service at least five years. Carried.

The Fourth Ward Mutual Holiday Fun Night held on January 3rd began with everyone creating a fashionable (or otherwise) hat from the materials available. A sample of wall paper, crepe paper, streamers, scotch tape and straight pins.

By the time this was accomplished everyone was in a holiday mood, and ready to enjoy the games and relays directed by Wilson Rolston. Joe and Marie Strong then led in a series of dances after which everyone lined up for lunch; of course they had to be wearing their artistic creations to qualify for the donuts and hot chocolate.

While all this was going on Zettella Taylor, Phyl Meeks and Ervin Fawns were quietly viewing the scene, critically eyeing the hats and reaching a decision. Ervin Fawns as spokesman awarded Coleen Christensen and Jimmy Vance the prizes for girls and boys respectively.

As an added high light 'Uncle' Joe Hicks was surprised with a birthday cake aglow with 75 candles and a pair of diamond knit socks, in appreciation of his help and co-operation in Mutual. Everyone sang Happy Birth day; Uncle Joe took a deep breath; blew; and 75 candles went out. He then said a few words expressing his thanks and a very enjoyable evening was brought to a close with "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

Mrs. Darcelle Bullock returned home last week after accompanying her husband to Calgary where he is taking a course at the Tech. She stayed in Calgary a week.

Owen Larsen is Laid To Rest

Mr. Larsen was born in Stirling on the first day of May, 1910, and spent the years of his youth there. His start in the electrical field was with Calgary Power and then at the factory where he was employed for sixteen years until 1945 when he entered a partnership with Mr. Lawson in a shop that stood on the site of the present Larsen's Electric that was completed just over a year ago. Mr. Lawson left the partnership in 1947 and since that time it has been just Larsen's Electric.

Mr. Larsen was married to Annie Atwood in the Cardston Temple on October 12, 1932, and was the father of eight children, Carol, Elaine, Louella, Camille, Ronald, Brenda Lois and Tommy.

Since his health began to fail about two years ago he received medical treatment at Calgary, Rochester and in Montana and Arizona.

He was a member of the Raymond Curling Club and his presence will be missed there as it will be throughout the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Holt entertained at a turkey dinner party Saturday evening for the First and Fourth Ward Bishoprics. The occasion being Mrs. Holt's and T. T. Mendenhall's birthdays.

"To comprehend a Miracle, you must comprehend the ingredients that went into its making."

"Western Folklore" edited by B. A. Botkin, with a foreword by Bernard DeVoto contains 500 histories and 50 folksongs for Westerners themselves from their national heritage. More than 800 pages in the book which are full of drama and color of the West as the stories tell of the Indians, Trappers, Hunters and Cowboys. Mixed in with their story, are the stories of the horses and cattle, the gambling-halls, the badmen and the coming of law and order with the arrival of the covered wagons with the pioneers.

The book is compiled from the accounts and writings of many peoples from tales told around the campfires, old newspapers and books, from magazine files and archives. Mr. Botkin found them all and spent many hours compiling and writing what he found.

The book is a panorama of the country before the pony express days and paints a portrait of the people who made the West the land it is today. Not all of the stories are of the Old West; some are of modern times and the part men and women of today are playing in the building of the West.

The author editor, Mr. Botkin is an eminent folklorist expert for folklore at the Congress Library in Washington and President of the American Folklore Society. He has compiled previous books of folklore which have sold close to a million copies.

Some people wait for the cry of the wild goose to herald the Spring. Librarians wait for the diet hunters.

The February issue of one of the more popular magazine, which is a little early for publication, carries a full seven day diet. Sure enough before the end of the week, diet hunters were after their magazine. Now they are well away to a good start. Spring cannot be far away.
